Committee Will Study Taxes

Randall County commissioners Monday moved toward appointment of a committee to advise on county taxing policies. Although Commissioner B. R. Jones voted against the measure, he was first to make an

Soap Box Racer Has Tough Luck

A bit of bad luck came to Wesley Allen, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Allen, in the Soap Box Derby races held in Amarillo recently.

Allen, whose car was sponsored by Southwestern Public Service, had a wreck in his first trial run damaging the car. Somewhat repaired but still with a bent axle on his derby car, Allen continued in the races only to be outraced by the car which placed second in the overall running.

Amarillo Jaycees sponsored the races with the winning car and owner receiving an expense paid trip to Akron, Ohio for the national competition. Area Jaycee clubs, such as the one in Canyon, each year submit entries for the race from their hometowns, according to Weyman Brown, local president.

Plans Made For Reunion

Plans for the Randall County Old Settlers Reunion have been formulated, according to Roland Black, manager of the local Chamber of Commerce.

The reunion, scheduled July 27, will include visitations, memorial prayers and introduction of visitors beginning at 1:30 p.m. with registration in the American Legion Building.

From 4 until 5:30 p.m. the group of old settlers will help dedicate Randall County Historical Markers at the First National Bank, W. F. Heller home on Eighth Street, The Canyon News and City Hall.

A drive-by visit of other markers already dedicated will be conducted by bus.

Conducting the dedicatory ceremonies will be a representative of the Randall County Historical Survey Committee.

The annual parade, barbecue, carnival and other activities generally held during the old settlers reunion will not be conducted this year, Black said.

Black said representatives from local civic organizations would be asked later to help reorganize the annual activities for next year.

CANYON HOUSEWIFE

Has Corneal Transplant

A corneal transplant was conducted Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock for Mrs. J. V. Martin of Canyon.

Mrs. Martin's surgery occurred at St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo where she is reported to be in excellent condition this week. Sunday, when bandages were removed for medication, Mrs. Martin could see "light".

Thirty-three years old, Mrs. Martin's left eye was scarred last year as a result of the shingles. She will be hospitalized for about two weeks before being brought home.

Betty Bullock, director of the Hi-Plains Eye Bank in Amarillo, reports that she sent a "call for an eye" Saturday morning early and received notification at 7:15 a.m. through ham radio operators that an eye was available and would be shipped to Amarillo. The eye came from Baltimore, Maryland.

"The doctors were notified—the Martins were notified—and the surgery was conducted," appointment to the committee. Jones appointed Tom Dawkins, Amarillo developer, who has been spokesman for a group which contends that city property is being taxed unfairly in comparison to rural property.

According to an agreement reached Monday, each commissioner will appoint a member to the committee and three members will be appointed by County Judge Carroll Brown, all to be ratified by commissioners court as a whole.

Dawkins was the only member appointed Monday. He was present, accompanied by Charles Wolfen who is another Amarillo developer, and said he would accept the appointment.

Dawkins indicated that, although he is not yet satisfied, the action by the court Monday probably would forestall a contemplated lawsuit designed to tie up the tax rolls and force commissioners to borrow money to operate the county.

Jones explained his reason for voting against appointment of the study committee.

"You are going to have seven adversaries," he declared, "and we are going to get seven minority reports."

Dawkins wanted immediate action.

Commissioner Bill Butler explained that the county tax rolls already have been reviewed by the court acting as a board of equalization and are closed.

Randall County Criminal District Attorney George Dowlen said nothing could be done now to change the current tax rolls.

"I think we all agree that there are some inequities," declared Judge Carroll Brown, "and we are moving as rapidly as possible to do something about it."

"We hate lawsuits but maybe that is the way," declared Dawkins. (See TAXES, Page 5)

Doctor In Clutter Case Visits Canyon

Dr. Mitchell Jones, Newton, Kan., psychiatrist in the Clutter murder case in which the Clutter family of Holcomb, Kan., was wiped out by two thugs, said registering of guns would have done little to avert the tragedy.

Jones, who grew up in Canyon, interviewed Richard Eugene Hickock and Perry Edward Smith, convicted of the killings and hanged, at length while the two were waiting for the sentence to be carried out.

Hoping to get a considerable amount of cash, the two ex-convicts went to the Clutter farm home and murdered the Clutters and two of their children who were at home at the time.

Dr. Jones points out that the Clutters were killed with a gun belonging to Hickock's parents and he is of the opinion that the weapon would have been registered if such had been required at the time.

Dr. Jones was assigned to the Kansas state hospital at Larned at the time Smith and Hickock were imprisoned for the killings.

"I went over and interviewed Hickock and Smith and I met Truman Capote who is the author of 'In Cold Blood,'" Dr. Jones said. (See DOCTOR, Page 5)

Advertising manager for The Canyon News, and two young daughters, Tammy, 8, and Marla Kay, 6.

"While Carla is in the hospital," said her husband, "the girls are staying with an aunt."

And while Mrs. Martin is recuperating from her surgery Mrs. Bullock will continue her search for additional eye donors and recipients as a part of a gigantic Eye Bank project sponsored by Lions Clubs across the nation.

Mrs. Bullock stated that 58 eye banks are located in the United States, six of these are in Texas. These eye banks serve as a central agency for distribution of eyes for transplants and eye operations.

"There is no charge for the eyes," said Mrs. Bullock explaining that all eyes are donated to the non-profit organization. Donated eyes are then provided for recipients at no charge.

"The Eye Bank pays transportation of the eye and for (See CORNEAL, Page 5)

Governor and Mrs. John Connally greet crowds of well wishers at Panhandle Heritage Foundation's amphitheatre Friday as they arrived for the season's opening performance of "TEXAS." It was the governor's second visit to the amphitheatre and the Wind Hampers Performance

"Texas" House Full

Looking like a movie matinee idol, Texas Gov. John B. Connally arrived here Friday to greet a crowd estimated at 1,500 for the pre-season opening of "TEXAS" in Palo Duro Canyon State Park.

The governor, accompanied by his wife, Pete Gilvin, president of the "TEXAS"-sponsoring Panhandle Heritage Foundation, and a hoard of security officers and Highway Patrolmen, was also on hand to dedicate a large map of the Panhandle as well as two historical markers.

After apologizing to several in the receiving line for his tardiness, the governor officially dedicated a 10 x 10 granite relief map at the entrance to the Pioneer Amphitheatre in memory of Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Warner, early settlers to the region.

First noting he had "several pleasant privileges", the governor expressed his appreciation to the Warner children

"for thoughtfulness, kindness and generosity" in giving the relief map.

Explaining what he termed "compassion for people of the early days of the Panhandle," Gov. Connally said the Warners were "two wonderful people."

"Let it be a constant reminder of the faith, strength of character, unselfishness and driving will of these two wonderful people," the governor said of Dr. and Mrs. Warner.

After terming the lives of Dr. and Mrs. Warner as "a source of marvel and inspiration to all of us", the governor dedicated markers erected by the Randall County Historical Survey Committee.

The markers dedicated are for the Charles Goodnight Memorial Trail and for the site of an early barbed wire fence in the Panhandle.

The Goodnight marker is located near the Panhandle Plains Historical Museum here and the other is adjacent to the museum annex.

On hand for the dedicatory ceremonies was Mrs. Terry C. Martin, chairman of the local survey committee; Charles Woodburn of Amarillo, president of the Texas State Historical Survey Committee; and Truett Latimer of Austin, executive secretary.

After eating barbecue near the show site, the governor, dressed in a dark blue suit and matching tie, milled through the crowd before the musical drama began.

Mrs. Connally, dressed in a yellow dress with green stripes, was shown various parts of the (See "TEXAS", Page 5) independent traffic control survey on the highway running through Canyon.

Crews that were to begin striping 23rd Street this week for the left-turn lanes will be told to wait and about $1,000 worth of turn indicators already ordered will be stored.

Before the decision to table action was made, about 35 businessmen confronted city dads asking that no left-turn lanes be made as it would eliminate parking in front of some stores.

Under the proposal earlier approved two-way left turn indicators would be installed at Second and Fifth and a four-way indicator would be installed at the intersection of Fourth Avenue and 23rd Street. The left-turn lane striping would remove much of the parking spaces for about one-half block of the intersection involved.

"I hope you won't close us up," said Charles Donnell, owner of the local motion picture (See DADS, Page 5)

Winthrop Chides Texas Governor

BY TROY MARTIN
Sources close to John Connally have indicated that the governor is available for the vice presidency but only under certain conditions.

Gubernatorial Assistant Mike Mires, who accompanied the governor and Mrs. Connally to the opening performance of "TEXAS" in Palo Duro Canyon Friday, said Connally's position on the vice presidency is iffy.

"He hasn't been asked by Hubert Humphrey to be a candidate yet," said Mires.

Mires said that even if the governor were asked by Humphrey to be his running mate Connally would do so only under certain conditions.

"The governor would have to be satisfied with the policies of Mr. Humphrey," said the gubernatorial aide. "He wouldn't accept the vice presidential candidacy if Mr. Humphrey is going to go back to his ADA (Americans for Democratic Action) policies."

Humphrey was one of the founders of the ADA and in the past his positions have been far more liberal than those of the Texas governor.

Although the governor is iffy about his quest for his party's second spot, he apparently hasn't ruled out the possibility.

Mrs. Connally with charming impishness said she hopes her husband will not be a candidate.

"You've had him eight years," she declared.

The governor himself left the canyons immediately following the "TEXAS" performance and was not available for an interview.

Intermission for the outdoor drama was extended some 15 minutes Friday night while Governor Connally talked by telephone with Governor Winthrop Rockefeller of Arkansas.

Winthrop Rockefeller was reported to have chided the Texas Governor because he was not to be on hand in San Antonio to greet Winthrop's brother, Nelson, Saturday.

Nelson Rockefeller, governor of New York and a candidate for the Republican nomination for President of the US, visited HemisFair in San Antonio Saturday.

Fall Injures Amarillo Youth

Robert Rollen, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Rollen of 3613 Wayne in Amarillo, was injured in a fall at the first water crossing in Palo Duro Canyon State Park Friday evening.

Park officials said Rollen was standing on a high ledge when he fell about 40 feet.

Rollen, who sustained a cut on his head, was taken to an Amarillo hospital by his father for treatment.

Helium Pact Inked At WT

A year's agreement has been signed between the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Mines, Helium Activity, and the West Texas State University Computer Center.

The pact, signed Wednesday, will stipulate terms under which the university will provide computer facilities required for the scientific and technical computer work of the Helium Activity.

Signing the contract Wednesday was Virgil Henson, WTSU financial vice president, and Gerald Grout of the Helium Activity.

Located in the Kilgore Research Center on the WTSU campus, the Computer Center has worked with the Helium Activity in Amarillo since 1963. The yearly grant for the new fiscal year will be approximately $70,000.

The contract will permit further extension of the working agreement between WTSU and the Helium Activity, which has been in effect for a number of years, to exchange scientific information, personnel, and the utilization of WTSU graduate students by the Helium Activity.

Durwood Henderson is head of the Computer Center.

Governor Connally explained that Saturday was pro tiem day in Texas—a day when traditionally there would be an acting governor.

Connally explained to the Arkansas governor that he usually leaves the state on such occasions and that in no case would he make a state appearance on pro tiem day.

"You tell Nelson to come to Texas any other time and I'll have a barbecue for him," Connally was quoted as having told the Arkansas governor. "I will not make a state appearance on pro tiem day."

Connally was reached by Winthrop Rockefeller as the Texas governor and Mrs. Connally inspected the sound and light booth at the Panhandle Heritage Foundation Amphitheatre.

Those in the booth with the governor's party said the conversation between the two governors was about 15 minutes in duration.

Senator Jim Bates was governor pro tiem Saturday.

Honeymoon Separately

He spent his part of the honeymoon in Asia while she was in South Amarillo.

The couple, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby E. Woodrell, were married last week by proxy because he is stationed with the armed forces "somewhere in southeast Asia" while she is living with his parents in Amarillo.

The former Mary Jane Schindler was married to Woodrell by G. B. Shelburne, Jr., minister of the West Amarillo Church of Christ. His mother stood in for him while Mr. Shelburne read the vows.

Randall County Clerk Lee Roy Hutton, with whom the proxy and marriage papers were filed, said he was unaware of any record of a similar marriage by proxy ever being filed here.

Alibates Field Notes Presented

Eli Baker, Albuquerque, Friday will present field notes on the Alibates Flint Quarry and Antelope Creek ruins to Panhandle-Plains Museum.

The excavations were carried out in the 1930s. Baker and his wife did the first excavating at the ruins. The Alibates Quarry probably is the site of America's first factory in which Indians manufactured flint tools for trade.

Boone McClure, curator of the museum, said the museum here has on hand some 15,000 artifacts from the ruins.

Mrs. Charles Robb, Lynda Bird Johnson, daughter of the President, is shown here autographing programs for the cast of "TEXAS". Mrs. Robb was on hand for the Sunday night performance of the outdoor drama as a guest of Joe Batson of Amarillo. In her party were Commodore and Mrs. Tom Morgan, Commodore Morgan is commander of the Sequoia, a naval vessel which is at the President's disposal. Mrs. Robb is shown signing a program for little Shawn Stevens. Looking on are Liz Wiley, Susan Brantley and Terry Milligan.

FROM THE

CANYON RIM

Nellie Connally is a charming woman. She was all smiles Friday as she arrived here for the opening of "Texas."

Those in the party said Mrs. Connally, herself a thespian of some renown during her university days, enjoyed the show. She saw it under the worst possible conditions.

The governor's party arrived in a swelter of heat. The weather was calm during the late afternoon.

And then about the time for the first curtain, the wind arose. Dust and strong winds hampered the performance.

To cap it off, the caterer ran out of barbecue and the governor and Mrs. Connally dined on scraps.

John Connally is one of the most impressive appearing men in politics today. He exudes confidence and begets trust.

I don't think I could ever vote for Hubert Humphrey, regardless of who is on the ticket with him, but I do think the Democrats would have uncommon good sense to choose Connally.

I rather doubt that Humphrey will ask the governor since there is such a difference in their political philosophies. However, Lyndon Johnson might demand as payment for his support that Connally be chosen as vice presidential candidate.

An article in an Amarillo paper appeared to rule Connally completely out of the vice presidential picture. According to an aide, the governor is far from out of the running.

B. R. Jones voted against choosing a committee to make recommendations on equalization of Randall County taxes on grounds that the committee would be made up of seven adversaries.

"We will get seven minority reports," Jones told commissioners court.

Then the commissioner appointed a man almost certain to bring true his prediction of dissension on the committee.

He appointed Tom Dawkins. Dawkins is a man with his mind make up. He is biased on the subject of tax equalization. In fact, he has even threatened to sue the county.

I don't see how Dawkins could with an open mind take a place on the committee.

I agree with Jones that appointment of a study committee is just a delaying tactic. After all is said and done, any action taken must be taken by commissioners court.

I have been invited to a press conference July 19 for Governor Ronald Reagan. I understand that only working press will be present with the governor and we will have a chance to ask him some questions.

I am looking forward to that meeting.

I am convinced that an effort is afoot--with millions of dollars being spent on it--to foment race war in this country.

Such a conflict would undoubtedly pave the way for totalitarian take over.

Thinly veiled magazine articles, some television shows and some civil rights leaders are busy sowing seeds of discord rather than preaching mutual respect and cooperation which is necessary if the black race is to find itself in the American system.

These apostles of hate and distrust and the politician who panders to ignorant masses have the welfare of neither the black nor white at heart.

Every day I become more fearful of the outcome.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Ash of Canyon.

Our World

BY MRS. GILBERT BROWN

What's wrong with the young people? What's wrong with society? What's wrong with America? These are questions we hear echoed on every side.

But who are the young people? They are our children. And who is society? We are society.

If we would cure America's ills, we must begin at the source of the trouble: The individual.

Recently our congressman, Bob Price, sent out--at his own expense--a very relevant questionnaire for some information that would enable him to try to improve our government. The questionnaire was on a card that was already perforated.

All the voters are clamoring for better government--and rightly so. Yet only one out of ten voters in our district was willing to give five minutes of his time to punch out that perforated card and return it to his congressman to help him give us that better government.

It takes no talent, and very little energy to complain about what's wrong with the world. But it takes insight and hard work to right those wrongs.

Everybody wants a paycheck, but few people really want to work. When applying for a job, the applicant usually inquires about the salary, vacation time, coffee breaks, and various other fringe benefits; but seldom does he ask about opportunities for service.

If all those trouble makers in Washington, D. C., were offered jobs consistent with their abilities, probably nine out of ten of them would refuse to work. A wild guess? Hardly.

San Antonio is listed among the cities where crime is rampant, unemployment a plague, and malnutrition widespread. On the front page of a recent San Antonio paper, one unemployment agency declared there were at least 20,000 jobs available in the city, and the majority of them were unskilled.

A roofing company was pleading for workers (at $2.22 an hour) to tear off old roofs--something any able-bodied person could do. But apparently the poor people prefer a paycheck without it being contaminated by work.

Money is the product of somebody's labor. If one man refuses to work, the next one has to work twice as hard to feed the idler. If a man does not want to support his idle neighbor, then he should speak up where his voice will be heard: at the polls!

If a man does not approve of murder, robbery, and vandalism, then he should mete out punishment when he serves on the jury.

If one would cure our "sick society," he should look into his mirror and exact some promises from the fellow he sees there:

To be morally honest and upright with his fellow man.

To give a day's work for a day's wages, and a day's wages for a day's work.

To manifest genuine concern for the welfare and happiness of those around him.

If everyone will keep these promises in his home, his church, and his community, then America's "sickness" will be cured. It is high time we quit yelling "What's wrong with society" and "What's wrong with the young people," and start asking "What's wrong with me" and "What's wrong with my children."

WHAT IS HAIR

STYLING?

by Leigh Carter

Men's hairstyling consists of cutting and shaping hair to a flattering shape. The most becoming style conceals feature irregularities and accentuates normal features. The illusion is one of thoroughly desirable features.

A talented hairstylist has a definite artistic bent. Knowledge of art principles helps him visualize the best styles for customers. His experience makes him imaginative and creative. He understands how fullness here or thinning there will enhance features. Head, neck, and face are studied and analyzed before styling begins.

All this artistry is accomplished with various cutting implements. Gels, sprays, lotions, nets, and blow wavers are used. The stylist understands many techniques such as blending, tapering, and feather-edging. These are magic touches which are at his fingertips. Styling hair to suit the customer's personality is part of modern barbering.

Heat Ruled
Death Cause

A 16-year-old Amarillo youth died Friday of heat exhaustion near the Palo Duro Canyon State Park boundary, a coroner's ruling indicates.

Stanley Burk Oldham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Oldham, was horseback riding with James Douglas Quiggle, also of Amarillo, when he became ill on the property located on the Harrell Ranch in Armstrong County. The temperature was more than 100 degrees.

Quiggle notified R. B. Allen of Canyon who was riding nearby. He found the youth and notified authorities here.

Randall County Sheriff L. S. Johnston, Justice of the Peace W. A. (Bill) Wilson and two units from the Canyon Volunteer Fire Department located the youth about 1:30 a.m. Saturday but were unable to bring his body to the Harrell Ranch until about 6:30 a.m. Saturday.

Local authorities were met at the Harrell Ranch by officials of Armstrong County who pronounced the youth dead. Funeral services were conducted Monday in Amarillo.

Hidden Falls Ranch Project Has Camp Theme Of Christian Teaching Here

WAYSIDE-- A husband-and-wife team runs the 200-acre Hidden Falls Ranch, which represents a unique experiment in blending Christian teaching with western camping.

The ranch lies 1,000 feet above the floor of Palo Duro Canyon, 4 miles north of Wayside.

Assisted by a staff of three dozen, the Rev. John Staat and his wife, Betty, affectionately known by campers as Uncle John and Aunt Betty, have welcomed the first group of campers.

The nonprofit, nondenominational youth camp opened June 16 for the fourth year. It is said to be the only facility of its type between Dallas and Denver. Founded and directed by the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Staat, it has the purpose of "meeting the needs of America's greatest asset -- its youth."

Throughout the summer, boys and girls between the ages of 8 and 17 attend the camp. According to the Rev. Mr. Staat, the young people come from over the state and the Southwest, representing Catholic and about a dozen Protestant denominations. They are provided with an outdoor program of riding, swimming, fishing, cookouts, rodeos, archery and craftwork, with periods of Bible study and devotionals for emphasis on spiritual growth.

The Hidden Falls Ranch has a physical plant that consists of eight duplex units which can accommodate up to 160 youths, an infirmary, a large dining hall, an administration building and a trading post, cooks' quarters, a tennis court, a shuffleboard court, a rodeo arena, shooting and archery ranges, stables, shower houses and a crafts room.

The ranch currently has 15 saddle horses and some of the most scenic bridle paths in the Panhandle. The ranch grounds consist of an 80-acre campus on the canyon rim and 120 acres of rugged canyon land. Thousands of additional acres in Palo Duro Canyon are open to the youths for hiking and riding.

Mr. Staat said the ranch has 37 springs and three waterfalls which attract an abundance of wildlife, including turkey and deer.

"Here in this picturesque setting the camper has the advantage of being close to the beauties of God, of Christian fellowship and of a well-rounded, Christ-centered program," Mr. Staat said.

Camp periods are one week in duration, and the first eight weeks this year will be for the 8 to 12-year-olds. The final weeks of camp are reserved for teen-agers, 13-17.

Hidden Falls Ranch is supported by contributions from interested persons, foundations, a trust fund, a sponsorship membership program, and revenue from the summer camp program.

The camp is operated by a board of directors including Christian businessmen from Amarillo, Canyon and the Dallas area.

A typical day at Hidden Falls begins with reveille at 6:30, followed by cabin cleanup, flag-raising, a devotional period, and breakfast at the central dining hall at 7:45 a.m.

The remainder of the morning is spent on instruction to such subjects as horsemanship, riflery, archery, crafts, nature study, camping techniques and knot-tying.

An hour's siesta follows lunch, and from 2 to 3 p.m. is Bible study. The rest of the afternoon is free time and may be spent in fishing, hiking, hunting rocks and arrowheads, ping-pong, shuffleboard, horseshoe pitching and horseback riding.

The ranch schedules a special event each day following dinner. It may be a rodeo or softball games, and there is a campfire talk each day at 8 p.m. Cabin devotions are conducted each evening before lights are out.

Mr. and Mrs. Staat have been in youth work since 1955. He was dean of men and teacher at the Dallas Bible Institute and Bible College from 1960 to 1964 and director of a youth camp in the Dallas area from 1957 to 1963. Mrs. Staat was dean of women of the same college during the 1962-63 school term and assisted Mr. Staat in the directing of the camp in the Dallas area.

The camp maintains a youth-counselor ratio of 4-to-1. The camping season opened the second week in June and will continue through August. After the summer program recesses, Mr. Staat said, the facilities are available to civic clubs, school groups and religious organiza-

"If that's what you want to do," said Judge Brown, "It will be up to you. It will be your tax dollar that the county will have to spend on any suit. But we are not going to be stampeded into something just to pacify a lawsuit."

"Tom, you are trying to put this court on terms and we are not going to accept terms," declared Jones.

Lee Dennett, Amarillo appraiser, said he feels that there is no group of citizens in Texas who can do a good job of equalizing taxes.

"They just don't have the time," he said.

The court decided to await an attorney general's ruling on the status of West Texas State University students before making a move toward reapportionment of Randall County Commissioners' Precincts.

Commissioners also took action in allocation of the county's $1.45 tax levy. Of that amount, 10 cents will go to the jury fund; 30 cents to the road and bridge fund; 40 cents to the general fund; 15 cents to the court house and jail fund; 20 cents to the sinking fund; and 30 cents to the road and bridge special fund.

Mr. Staat said a plan calls for a 70-by-40-foot swimming pool and a number of dams to provide some fishing for the sponsors of the ranch program. The pool is expected to cost $16,000.

Hidden Falls Youth Camp is reached from Amarillo and Canyon by travelling south on U. S. 87 to the Wayside cutoff, then east 18 miles to Wayside and 4 miles north.

theatre, to which Francis Shell added, "no business can survive without parking."

Bernard Warren said removing parking fronting the business establishments would be a "grave injustice."

Many of those present pointed out that some of the businesses involved had no back door customer entrances and few parking spaces in front of their stores.

"It's plain to see those here didn't give us an answer to the problem," the mayor said after the protestors had left. "I think they're overemphasizing their hurt. I feel like it is to Canyon's interest to go ahead and make it a little safer than it is."

"I feel this would put some of those people out of business," said Commissioner Felix Pierce. "It's going to hurt--it's going to look bad."

Noting the left-turn lanes would not eliminate accidents, Commissioner Jim Christopher further stated he was "looking at it from a human element standpoint. It could have been amplified, but they are sincere in making a living," he told the mayor.

Pierce said he was impressed by the number of businessmen who appeared from Canyon's "Square" area and moved to delay action on the left-turn lanes but to bring the matter before a public hearing should it be considered again in the future.

"I don't think you would accomplish anything by having a public hearing," the mayor injected.

Christopher seconded Pierce's motion after City Manager Paul Davis noted that there have been 14 accidents on 23rd Street since Jan. 1, 1968 and about 80 per cent were due to left-turn violations.

Noting that it was "a hard decision to vote for it," Commissioner H. R. Fulton, Jr. asked Pierce to rephrase his motion to eliminate the public hearing portion but instead add the stipulation for the traffic control study this fall.

Christopher withdrew his second, Pierce rephrased his original motion and Christopher gave a second to it.

"I'm as strong for it as I ever was," the mayor said of the need for left-turn lanes on the highway and the three intersections.

Fulton emphasized he was interested in seeing the results of the traffic survey this fall and told Pierce, "that's the reason--the only reason--I voted for your motion."

Mayor Lindsey said the delay until fall would make the question a "dead duck."

In other action, a low bid of $11,838.40 was accepted from Plains Machinery Company of Amarillo for a four-yard street sweeper. A three-yard device will be used as trade-in. There was one other bidder.

Commissioners approved specifications for four breathing air paks at an estimated cost of $1,300 and 1,000 feet of 1 and one-half inch fire hose at an estimated cost of $800.

Christopher, a former Canyon Volunteer Fire Department chief, said the air paks would be used primarily in WTSU dormitory fires.

"Aren't the dorms fire-proofed?" Pierce asked.

Explaining the WTSU dormitories were not fire-proofed, Christopher said two of the six air paks now used by the fire department here were purchased since 1952.

"When you need it, how necessary is it?" Christopher asked the commissioners.

"They (volunteers) have been drilled on the use of the air paks. How they use them in a crisis is something else," Christopher added, explaining that two cylinders now being used by the fire department were purchased by the volunteers.

A request to renew the city's medical policy with Blue Cross-Blue Shield Insurance Company for one year was also sanctioned.

communications required in securing the eye," said Mrs. Bullock. "Of course, the recipient is required to pay for hospital care and the services of the physician."

"About 30 hospitals in the Texas Panhandle are equipped for the removal of donated eyes," said Mrs. Bullock. She stated that Neblett Memorial Hospital in Canyon is equipped for the service.

Following removal, the eye is placed in a shipment capsule and forwarded to various points throughout the United States where hospitals are staffed with physicians who can conduct the transplant. Texas has three hospitals with physicians qualified to conduct the transplant. Amarillo is among those Texas towns having a hospital and staff available for the transplant, according to Mrs. Bullock.

"Donated eyes must be removed from 3-8 hours following death," stated Mrs. Bullock, explaining that the donated eyes are enroute to the recipient within 25-72 hours after removal.

Ham radio operators are used for emergency information on the project.

Mrs. Bullock, who is on 24-hour call at the Hi-Plains Eye Bank, is in charge of the distribution of donated eyes for this area. She takes local shipments (usually coming to Amarillo by airplane) and delivers the eyes to the hospital. She explained that donated eyes are kept under refrigeration while enroute to the recipient.

Donors from age three up are acceptable for the plan. Quality of vision makes no difference providing that the cornea, sclera and vitreous fluid are not diseased.

"One pair of donated eyes," said Mrs. Bullock, "may be used to help correct eye problems for as many as six people under perfect conditions."

Additional information on the eye bank procedure is available from the Hi-Plains Eye Bank, Inc. offices located at 320 Herring Hotel in Amarillo, DR3-4004.

Donors sign release cards when they desire to donate their eyes to the project, concluded Mrs. Bullock.

Taylor Assigned Vietnam

FIREWORKS for the holiday are being sold this week by members of the Canyon Jaycees. The stand, located on the Palo Duro Highway, just east of Canyon city limits, will remain open all day today, July 4. Terry Clark, project chairman, is shown putting the finishing touches to the Jaycee sign. Funds from the sale of fireworks will be used in sponsorship of numerous youth and community projects of the Jaycees throughout the year. Discharge of fireworks within the city limits is prohibited by City Ordinance.

Jones related. "The book was an accurately drawn picture of Smith," he went on. "I knew Smith much better than I did Hickock. I went to the execution at Smith's request."

"I went up there the afternoon of the hanging and told him I just couldn't do it. He said he wanted at least to have a friend there."

Dr. Jones said he thinks Capote felt a kinship to Smith. Capote, like Smith, was moved from pillar to post while he was growing up, according to Dr. Jones.

"Hickock was in and out of trouble a good deal," the psychiatrist went on, "but I think he had some potential in him. He was the brains of the killings. He planned it. I don't think he had it in him to kill. Perry Smith did all the killing. He felt beaten down and had a violent nature. Psychologically he was a murderer."

Dr. Jones says he is no expert in the field but he thinks break down of the family unit is the cause of considerable violence. "Kids we see in bad trouble haven't had a family to support them," he declared.

He said he thinks the responsibility for law enforcement should rest on local authorities. "Local officers have a better knowledge of local conditions," he pointed out.

Dr. Jones is against the death penalty.

"Statistics do not support its being an effective deterrent," he declared. "People who are executed are either sick, poor or stupid and it's not fair in that sense."

He said he believes that people who commit crime and there is evidence that they are dangerous should be confined until there is evidence that they are no longer dangerous.

The Joneses were in Canyon over the week end visiting Dr. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Jones.

Canyon Youths In Jaycee Meet

The Canyon Jaycee's representatives to the State Sports Spectacular ran up against the strongest competition in the entire state, and "came away with no medals or team trophies, but with a wealth of good experience," according to Mrs. Joe Abbott.

In the track competition, the girls from Canyon were unable to place any higher than sixth place in any event, but came home resolved to change this next season. Spurred on by the fierce competition, all the Canyon girls improved on their best times and distances. The Canyon team was in competition with the very strong Abilene Track Club, also strong contingents from Lubbock, Dallas, and Garland as well as other teams from around the state.

In a gesture of good neighborliness, Kim Tucker filled in for the injured Mary Williams, and helped Tulsa to a third place finish in the intermediate 440 relay. Kim collected a bronze medal and the gratitude of the Tulsa track team for her efforts in their behalf.

"The golf duo of Joe Ziegler and Larry Daniel were also up to their necks in competition, but acquitted themselves well," said Mrs. Abbott. Joe, competing in the novice division had rounds 94 and 89 and placed twelfth in a field of fifty. Larry, competing in the open division, had rounds of 86 and 79 and placed fifteenth out of a field of 89. "Winds of 40 to 50 miles per hour hampered play somewhat," according to Daniel.

Now it's "wait till next year" and more training for these young Canyon athletes.

The Canyon Jaycee's wish to extend their thanks to Coach Jim Boyce, the athletes, sponsors, and all others who made this project possible, and it is hoped that the same may be done next year.

theatre before the production began.

Although high winds prevailed during all the "TEXAS" performance, the governor and his first lady seemed to enjoy the show and applauded with the other guests present.

Greeting "TEXAS" cast members as he left the theatre and calling many of them by their stage names, the governor promised to return for the production next year.

Mrs. Marcia Durden of Canyon, a representative of Welcome Wagon International, Inc., a greeting organization, presented corsages to Mrs. Connally, Miss Kerrick Warner of Pasadena, Calif., Mrs. Greely Warner of Pampa, and Mrs. W. H. Tappan.

WT Band Camp Enrolls 800 For Clinics Here

About 800 junior and senior high school musicians from an eight state area have enrolled for the annual West Texas Music Camp to be held July 14-26 on the campus of West Texas State University in Canyon.

Band and orchestra musicians from Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Arizona and California have enrolled. Texas students come from many towns and cities in the Panhandle region including 30 students from Canyon according to camp director, Dr. John E. Green.

The camp will be instructed by 45 teachers including eight from the WTSU music faculty.

Performance groups will include 7 concert bands, 3 reading bands, 3 stage bands, an orchestra and a choir.

Dr. Clarence Sawhill of the University of California in Los Angeles will conduct the high school honors band and Dr. Gary Garner, director of bands at WT, will be in charge of the reading band program. Dr. Donald Todd, concert violinist, at WT, will conduct the camp orchestra and Bill Moffitt from the Michigan State University will conduct a marching band clinic for instructors on July 20-21.

In addition to Dr. Garner and Dr. Todd of WT, other members of the WTSU faculty serving on the camp staff will be Mrs. Alice Cooke, Rowie Durden, David Ritter, Emerson Haraden, and Donald Baird.

Dr. Garner will also teach flute sectional rehearsals. Mrs. Cooke will teach oboe and coach woodwind ensembles. Ritter will teach trumpet and direct the Brass Choir and Haraden will teach French horn and coach brass ensembles. Baird, who will coach brass ensembles, will also teach baritone and tuba and Dr. Todd will teach stringed instruments in addition to working with the Camp Orchestra.

Canyon High School band director, Gary Zook, has been engaged as a member of the camp staff and will teach saxophone and coach woodwind ensembles.

The junior high school band director from Canyon, Terry Milligan, will teach drum majoring and coach in the woodwind ensembles department also.

News Brief

Kevin Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Miller of Canyon, is spending several weeks this summer at South Fork, Colorado visiting with his sister, Mrs. Bill Watson, and family.

Stops Here

H. L. TERRILL of Rolling Hills Estates, Calif., made an unscheduled stop at Canyon's airport Tuesday for minor repairs. The pilot, who has won several air speed awards, was enroute to Frederick, Md. near Washington, D. C. for Formula I races Friday through Sunday.

Rain Slows Competition

Rain slowed little league play as Monday and Tuesday night games were rained out. These games will be made up on Wednesday and Saturday nights.

The major league championship is still very much up for grabs, with the Yankees and the Dodgers having the best chance to take the crown. If the Dodgers beat the Red Legs, the Yanks beat the Braves, then the stage will be set for one of the wildest finishes imaginable, as the Yanks and Dodgers have two games remaining to be played against each other. Two straight victories by either team could clinch the championship, while a split would mean a tie. Owing to time problems with the All-Star competition, there may be a sudden death playoff to decide the championship, or co-champions may be declared. In any event, the last week of the season promises to be very exciting, and would be worth your attendance at the ballpark.

Standings through July 3:

Yankees	9	4
Dodgers	9	4
Astros	7	7
Red Legs	6	7
Braves	3	12

First City Boy's Daughter Visits

An Ohio woman and her husband stopped off in Canyon last week to look up two city lots given to her father--the first white boy born in Randall County, by Canyon's founder, L. G. Conner.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fuell of Cleveland visited a lot given to her father, Lee Conner Hale. Hale, now 77 years old, was born in Canyon city April 14, 1891 and was named for Conner. Conner gave him the lots located at 1309 Fifth Avenue.

News Brief

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Curb have returned after spending three weeks with their son, Les Curb, and family in Abilene.

As a part of their trip, the Curb's went to the HemisFair in San Antonio, the Astrodome in Houston, Galveston and a number of other sites.

The boy sold the lots to N. E. McIntyre for $60 before moving away in 1899. The lot on which a house later was built now belongs to J. P. Whittington, San Antonio, according to city records.

Hale was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Berry Hale. He now lives in Crossville, Tenn.

The Fuells are on an extended vacation trip in celebration of their silver wedding anniversary. While here they camped in Palo Duro Canyon and visited the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum.

They searched county records at the county clerk's office and visited The Canyon News.

With them they had a clipping from the Canyon newspaper of the 1890s of a picture of Hale and the story of how the lot had been given him by the town's founder.

Conner's daughter, Mrs. Mammie Conner Bradford, was the first white child born in the county.

Bakers Have Infant Girl

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Baker announce the June 25 birth of a daughter, Melissa June.

Born at Neblett Memorial Hospital in Canyon, the infant weighed 7 pounds 3 1/2 ounces at birth.

The couple has another daughter, Emily Kay, 20 months.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Murray of Midland and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Baker of Darrouzett.

Fighting "F" Company Holds Third Reunion

One of the lone star state's most famous fighting outfits of World War II held its third annual reunion here over the week end.

Veterans of "F" Company of the 142nd Infantry Regiment came from as far away as Indiana to fellowship and reminisce about 421 days on the line.

In the beginning, "F" Company was made up of boys from this area, many of them from Canyon. The ranks were finally thinned until replacements were necessary.

These came from Ohio and Indiana.

"They were good soldiers," commented Joe Gill, at one time "F" Company commander, Sunday. "They were all good fighters."

Gill himself was one of this country's top soldiers, holding most of his nation's medals for gallantry. Raised to officer status on the battlefield, Gill was discharged from the service as a captain and holds the Distinguished Service Cross, three Silver Stars and the Bronze Star.

Gill remembers that three Congressional Medals were awarded to members of "F" Company which saw its toughest fighting in Italy. One was awarded a Mexican boy whose comrades called him "Ugly" Gonzales.

In order to receive the Congressional Medal, Gonzales was required to surrender a Distinguished Service Cross he had previously won. He refused.

"I have already sent it to my mother and I wouldn't ask her to give it back," he explained in declining the greatest honor the United States can bestow upon its fighting men. Gonzales wasn't present Sunday. He died in 1947 but his comrades in arms recalled him fondly. He will be a part of every "F" Company reunion in time to come.

The company went overseas April 1, 1943 aboard the USS Argentina arriving in Oran April 13 after a swift crossing. They were briefly in North Africa.

The company had the dubious honor of leading the first wave in the invasion of Europe. It hit the beach at Salerno. The veterans remember it well.

Frank Hollobaugh, a Canyon soldier, was the first to step ashore at 3:30 o'clock the morning of Sept. 9, 1943. "I was first to trip over German barbed wire," recalls John Gist of Lamesa.

The Germans greeted them warmly with a horrifying barrage. The casualties were estimated as high as 30 percent by Homer Spence, Laguna Park, Tex., who was once company commander.

The company figured prominently in the break out at Anzio. General Fred L. Walker, now

The young guests, who arrived dressed in tatters and patches, had a cook-out after the hike.

Homemaker's Hobby Develops Into Full-Fledged Business

FINISHING TOUCHES for a wedding cake are applied by Mrs. Lewis Tucek, who lives five miles west of Canyon. Mrs. Tucek has turned

What do most homemakers do with their sparetime hobbies?

Some work awhile and then change to something else, later coming back to the original idea or foregoing the project altogether.

Mrs. Lewis Tucek, a homemaker and longtime 4-H adult leader, has a hobby which she still calls a hobby even after it has grown into a full-fledged business in her home.

And what does Mrs. Tucek do?

Well, industrious as she is, Mrs. Tucek is becoming a renowned baker of cakes. She bakes all kinds--for weddings, birthdays and special occasions--and spends hours of enjoyment in creating special decorations for each tasty morsel.

A native of Canyon, Mrs. Tucek was first introduced to decorating cakes about twelve years ago when she attended a county home demonstration meeting and saw a demonstration given.

"I thought it looked like fun and went home to try it," said Mrs. Tucek. "My first cakes were for nieces and nephews weddings and birthdays--and then a few neighbors asked that I bake a cake for them."

With humble beginnings, Mrs. Tucek has continued her hobby until now she averages 3-4 wedding cakes almost every week and often times more during the special semester breaks, which are the seasons for brides.

"June is traditional as the 'month of brides'", related Mrs. Tucek. "But this is not necessarily so, since we have brides at the end of summer, between semester breaks, and during the Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter holidays."

"Of course, they marry all year round but you can almost pinpoint the heaviest months being associated with holidays and breaks in the normal routine."

For about six years, Mrs. Tucek has maintained her kitchen home bakery and last year her records show that she baked 90 special birthday cakes, 41 wedding cakes, 66 special cakes (such as German chocolate, applesauce, fruitcake and strawberry cake specialties). She also baked 60 1/2 dozen cookies last year and prepared decorated cake squares totaling 3,719 in addition to cupcakes, party sandwiches, rolls and all types of pies.

"That sounds like a lot of cake squares," explained Mrs. Tucek. The cake squares are a baked sheet-cake which serves 30, thus for her total of 3,719 squares she baked about 120 sheet cakes.

For all of these cakes and pastries, Mrs. Tucek has her own special frosting and decorations. She said that her basic frosting consists of 1/4 cup Crisco shortening, a box of powdered sugar, a small amount of milk and almond or vanilla flavoring.

For all of her decorating, Mrs. Tucek makes her own wedding bells, roses, and flute edging. "The only things which I buy are gold and silver decorations which are not edible and the miniature bride and groom sets for the top tier."

Mrs. Tucek mixes her own colors and prefers the pastel shades for decorating. She said that most brides use pastel and pale shades of coloring on their wedding cakes, although she sometimes has requests for red and white at Christmas and during February. The only color, she explained, that she has not been able to match was an unusual rose red.

"I bake the cake, let it set until cold and settled and then frost and decorate it," said Mrs. Tucek. She explained that the average four-tiered wedding cake takes about three hours to decorate. For the wedding cake batter she uses a white cake mix, but for birthday and other special occasion cakes she begins from scratch with a white cake recipe.

The former Margaret Tate, Mrs. Tucek is a graduate of Canyon High School and completed two years at West Texas State University where she majored in physical education and science. She earned a teaching certificate and taught at Adrian for awhile before marrying her husband, Lewis, in 1943.

The Tuceks have two children and a granddaughter, Courtney Paige. Their daughter, Lucy Stephens, is a graduate of Canyon High School. She studied at WTSU and Draughton's Business School in Amarillo.

Their son, Gary, 14, will be a ninth grade student at Canyon Junior High School this fall. He is active in 4-H, having been a member for five years.

Mrs. Tucek, who was involved with 4-H activities for 12 years, recently resigned from the county level. She worked primarily with the girl's division. She is still a member of the state 4-H committee for the Texas Home Demonstration Association.

Reared in Canyon, Mrs. Tucek has three sisters, Mrs. Shirley Matson of Amarillo, Helen Murphy of California and Mrs. Brooks Gilliland of Dallas. Her mother is Mrs. P. R. Tate and her father is deceased. Her husband is one of ten children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tucek of Randall County. He has four sisters and a brother living in the Canyon area. They are Mrs. Clarence Beckman, Mrs. Gus Leseberg, Raymond Tucek, Mrs. Louise Knox and Mrs. Richard Coale. His other brothers and sisters are Mrs. Jack McBroom of Happy, Mrs. Henry Reineke of Iowa, Harry Tucek of Tucumcari, New Mexico and Joe Tucek of Illinois.

Thus far in 1968 (as of May 23) Mrs. Tucek had completed 17 wedding cakes, 1,458 cake squares, and 74 birthday cakes and the summer season of brides was just beginning.

Work Continues

MAJOR STREET WIDENING is in progress here this summer as several blocks of paving and trees will be demolished to make way for wider avenues. Funds for the project were approved in a bond election April 2.

Street Widening Is Underway Here

A major street widening program is currently underway here.

The project, which will include widening 17th St. on Fifth Avenue east to 28th St.; 14th St. and Fourth Avenue north to Third Avenue; east on Third Avenue to 17th St.; and south to Fourth Avenue; and on Second Avenue between 21st and 23rd St.

Lewis Construction Company of Dumas made a low bid in April of $138,872.19 for widening of the three Canyon Streets. There were three other bidders.

The action, said Mayor Paul Lindsey, is to facilitate the flow of traffic, especially on those streets near the West Texas State University campus.

The street widening, which will involve moving the curb lines about seven and one-half feet on each side, will be about the same distance as across the width of two parked cars.

The other paving will complete a program started about two years ago of widening streets around Canyon's "square".

Funds for the street widening was approved by Canyon voters in an April 2 bond issue election.

pinch salt
2 stick oleo
1/3 cup cocoa marshmallows

PEACH DUMPLINGS

Sauce:
1/3 cup butter
3/4 cup sugar
1 Tbsp. water (optional)

Dough:

1 1/4 cup flour
2 tsp. baking powder
2 tsp. sugar
1/4 tsp. salt
1/4 cup shortening
3/4 cup milk

Filling:

12 (egg-size) peaches
1/4 cup sugar

Use a 10 inch skillet with heat proof handle. Preheat oven to 450 degrees.

Sift flour, baking powder, sugar and salt for dough. Cut in shortening.

Pare peaches into a quart measure. Should be a generous quart of sliced fruit.

Turn fruit into skillet, spreading level. Sprinkle with 1/4 cup sugar.

Stir milk into flour mixture with fork until just well blended. Spoon blobs of dough over peaches and then spread over peaches.

Locals Set Pace For South Zone

The Canyon American Legion continued to set the pace in the South Zone by winning two games last week. Canyon dropped Caprock by a slim 6-5 margin and pounded Clarendon 12-2, bringing Canyon's record to 6 wins and 1 loss.

Against Caprock, Frank Belcher delivered a vital 3-run home run in the fourth inning and pitcher Lynn Salmon limited Caprock to four hits to lead the Canyon victory. Caprock struck for one run in the second on a home run by Larry Liles, but Canyon evened the score in the bottom of the second when a single by Galen Davis got by the Caprock leftfielder scoring Lynn Salmon from first base. In the Canyon half of the third, Max Bosley doubled to left and was singled home by Ryckie Sargee. In the fourth, an error by Caprock's shortstop and a single by Lynn Noel set the stage; then Belcher blasted his round-tripper over the leftfield wall. Caprock and Canyon traded runs in the sixth -- Caprock scored on an error, a hit better, and a double by Paul Rutherford. Canyon scored the winning run in the sixth as Lynn Noel singled and scored on a single by Sandy Hair. In the seventh, Salmon allowed three runs on three walks and a single, but got Rutherford to ground out to end the game. At Clarendon, John Teters pitched a three-hitter, and Sandy Hair and Ryckie Sargee each contributed three-run homers for Canyon. Max Bosley connected for three hits, one of them a double, scored three times to spark the Canyon attack.

Canyon plays Groom Friday, Hereford Saturday, and Tulla Sunday. At stake will be a trip to the District playoffs; two teams from the North Zone and two teams from the South Zone will vie for district championship in the playoffs.
